

13th INSME Annual Meeting

“Improving Productivity in SMEs and Their Role in Global Value Chains”

From the 15th to the 17th of May 2017
Puerto Vallarta - State of Jalisco, Mexico

Mr. Marco Marchese
Policy Analyst
OECD
France

Marco Marchese, an Italian national, has worked in the OECD since 2007 on the analysis of entrepreneurship and SME policy at the national and local level. At the OECD, he has completed a number of national and regional reviews of SME policy, with recent examples including Canada (2017), Israel (2016), Abu Dhabi (2015) and Italy (2014). At the OECD, Marco has also undertaken analytical work on cross-country thematic projects such as the role of high-growth firms for local economic development and enhancing productivity in SMEs. Prior to the OECD, he had worked for the UN International Labour Organization and the Italian government (Prime Minister’s Office). He holds a MSc. in Development Economics from the University of Rome, Italy, and has been Fulbright Visiting Scholar at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
